CSK is a full-service, civil defense firm. We started our firm in 1997 with nine attorneys in two offices. Due to, among other things, our adherence to our Litigation Management Model we have grown to be one of Florida's largest firms with approximately 350 attorneys operating out of our 11 strategically-positioned offices throughout Florida. Our practice focuses upon prompt case assessment, unwavering adherence to our evaluations, prompt case closure, and successfully trying cases when called upon to do so.

As a consequence of a combination of, among other things, the quality of our lawyers, our focus upon case closure and our trial abilities, CSK has developed one of the finest practices in the country. In fact, several of our lawyers are members of the American Board of Trial Advocates, are board-certified in Civil Trial, and have tried over 100 cases to verdict.

Lastly, and certainly consistent with demographics of Florida, CSK is a diverse and inclusive law firm, having been honored on multiple occasions for our success in continuing to achieve greater diversity.
